

P.H.D. Arturo Oropeza García
IJJ – UNAM

Arturo Oropeza Garcia is a Mexican academic specialized in international economic law, comparative law, and regional integration systems. He graduated PHD with honors from UNAM - Mexico's National University. Mr. Oropeza has appeared as an arbitrator in MERCOSUR dispute resolutions panels appointed by Brazil. He also has lectured at diverse universities and institutions around the world, as well as participated in more than 20 publications regarding legal and economic impact in globalization. The list of publications include: "Brazil, Russia, India, China (the BRIC system)"; "Mexico-Brazil: Legal and cultural comparative systems"; "Mexico-Russia: legal and cultural comparative systems, "Mexico-India: Legal and cultural comparative systems", "Mexico-China: legal and cultural comparative systems, "From the Atlantic to the Pacific: The new global order".

He is also a regular commentator and columnist, and has been published in several newspapers and magazines in Mexico and Latin America.