

PUBLIC MEETING WITH GUEST SPEAKERS

CALL 4

Fighting Racism through Public Interest Litigation: A Lawsuit to End Racially Discriminatory Police Questioning

In recent years, there have been constant complaints from people with foreign roots who have been subjected to repeated police questioning despite the absence of any reasonable grounds for suspicion.

In this meeting, learn about...

さん

- discriminatory police questioning
- racism in Japan
- public interest litigation as a tool for social change

Tuesday, November 19th, 2024 17:15 - 19:15

Venue : Chuo University Myogadani Campus, Room 2E08

Audience : Everyone welcome

Languages : Japanese, English, Japanese Sign Language, and Real-time Captioning in Japanese

Registration Required

by Nov. 18th
max. 100 people

ONLINE FORM →

CALL4 CO-EXEC DIR
Orie Maruyama

LAWYER
Tomoko Uraki

PLAINTIFF
Maurice Shelton

Presented by: Chuo University Diversity Center
Planned and organised by: students in Mike Nix's zemi

This lawsuit is supported by CALL4.
CALL4 is an online platform that supports public interest litigation addressing a wide range of social problems.