

Symposium Challenging Climate Change: Legal Implications

Research Project:
"Environmental Regulation in Global Arena: Theory and Practice"
Institute of Comparative Law in Japan, Chuo University

Date: 9 April, 2016 (10:30-19:00)

Venue: Room 570, Surugadai Memorial Hall, Chuo University
<http://global.chuo-u.ac.jp/english/siteinfo/visit/surugadai/>

Program:

10:30-10:45

Introduction
Hitoshi USHIJIMA
Professor of Law, Chuo University

10:45-11:45

"The Role of the International Law Face to Climate Change"
Sandrine MALJEAN-DUBOIS
Researcher at CNRS, Director of DICE, Aix Marseille University

11:45-12:45

"Contract and Climate Change"
Mathilde HAUTEREAU-BOUTONNET
Professor of Law, Aix Marseille University

12:45-14:00

Lunch

14:00-15:00

"The Role of the Expert Face to Climate Change"

Eve TRUILHE-MARENGO

Researcher at CNRS, Aix Marseille University

15:00-16:00

"Climate change and law of renewal energy"

Marie LAMOUREUX

Professor of Law, Aix Marseille University

16:00-16:30

Coffee

16:30-18:00

"Japan's Implementation of Environmental Treaties: An Analysis of General Trends & a Case-study of Climate Change"

Mari KOYANO

Professor of Law, Hokkaido University

Yukari TAKAMURA

Professor of Law, Nagoya University

Jun TSURUTA (paper participation)

Associate Professor of Law,

National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies

18:00-18:45

Discussion for all topics

18:45-19:00

Closing remarks

Language : English, French, Japanese

*Admission Free