Dean's Award: Up to 7 students

5. Application period and submission method

Application period: Early April

Submission method: Submit by uploading documents to the assignments on manaba GLOMAC NEWS.

6. Application documents

- 1) Entry sheet (required: prescribed format)

- * Complete the form electronically (no more than four A4 pages).

- 2) Related documents (optional: any format)

- * When submitting related documents, submit all documents in A4 size.

- * Enter student ID number and name in the upper right corner of the document.

7. Selection method

First screening: Document screening (entry sheet)

* Candidates for the second screening will be selected based on the contents of the entry sheet.

(Applicants will be judged comprehensively based on not only academic performance but also the contents of their entry sheet (including activities both on and off campus) and their past scholarship receipt history.)

Second screening: Group interview

8. Notification of selection results

First screening: Results will be sent to students' university email address by early May.

Second screening: Results will be sent to students' university email address by mid-June.

9. Scholarship Grants Payment

Following the prescribed procedures, the total scholarship amount will be paid in a single lump-sum transfer around July.

10. Award Ceremony and Social Gathering

President's Award: The award ceremony and social gathering will be held at the Student Affairs Office (scheduled for July).

Dean's Award: To be determined

11. Scholarship Student Activities

(1) Award winners will be asked to participate in various events (*) held by the university and faculty. Students will be contacted via students' university email address. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

* Open Campus, campus guide, university entrance consultation sessions, writing for the newsletter Kusa no Midori (The Green of the Grass), etc. If there are any other voluntary requests for activities, we will consider the content and work with relevant organizations to provide support.

(2) In order to create a better Chuo University, we may solicit opinions through surveys and other means.

(3) At the end of the academic year, students will be required to submit a report (regarding their academic achievements and various activities over the year) and answer a questionnaire (to be administered in C plus). Note that if students do not submit the report or answer the questionnaire, they may lose their scholarship status and be required to return the scholarship.

- * If you are absent for any reason, you will be considered to have withdrawn.
- * We will not respond to any inquiries regarding the screening results.
- * The selection schedule is subject to change. In such cases, students will be notified via their university email address.

13. Other important points

- (1) If you are selected for this scholarship, we may report the selection to the professors of your seminar (including FLP) and your alma mater. Please be advised of this in advance.
- (2) As a general rule, scholarship recipients will be disqualified if any of the following apply:
 - * In the event of taking a leave of absence (including a one-semester leave within the academic year) or withdrawal from the university;
 - * When disciplinary action is taken;
 - * When removed from the student register;
 - * When it is discovered that a false statement has been made in the submitted documents;
 - * When failed to submit the required documents;
 - * When declined to receive this scholarship; and
 - * Any other reason that the council of the Faculty of Global Management deems the student inappropriate for scholarship.
- (3) If a scholarship recipient loses eligibility, the scholarship will cease to be provided and the recipient must repay all or part of the scholarship.
- (4) It is possible to receive this scholarship in conjunction with other grant scholarships, but note that if the total amount received in the same academic year exceeds the tuition fees for that academic year, the grant amount may be reduced.
